[REDACTED] LIAISON Called Mike Van Dusen, Staff Director, House International Relations Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, and told him that the report he sought was still an unfinished product, that there was considerable controversy surrounding it and that it was not an agreed Intelligence Community position. I invited Van Dusen out to Headquarters to talk to people knowledgeable on the report who could tell him what was in it but that we were hesitant to show anyone the report at this time. He said that would be fine and that he would call me when his schedule would permit him to come to the Agency.

He made a particular point of the fact that having with him had been extremely useful in many ways, facilitating contacts and dialogue with our people and it was obvious that our people in the field appreciated the information he was able to convey to them on current developments in Washington.

9. LIAISON Talked with Jim Bush, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding the timing of the Director's overview briefing of the Subcommittee on Budget Authorization as part of its consideration of the FY 79 Intelligence Community budget. Bush said the Committee schedule allowed for only two possibilities for the Director's appearance. One was on 3 February or on 11 February, which would be after some of the hearings on intelligence budgets had already been presented. He said Chairman Bill Burlison (D., Mo.) did not want to break the CCP presentation which is scheduled all day on 10 February. I told him we would take this matter up with the Director and I was later advised the Director talked with Chairman Burlison and it was agreed that he would make his presentation on 11 February.
